Appointment and powers of Controller and immigration officers

3. —(1) The Minister may appoint a Controller of Immigration and such number of immigration officers as he may consider necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

[13/77]

(2) The powers and discretions vested in the Controller under this Act, and the duties required to be discharged by him may, subject to section 4 and to such limitations as the Controller may impose, be exercised and discharged by immigration officers duly authorised by the Controller to act on his behalf.

[13/77]

Power of Minister to issue directions

4. —(1) The Minister may from time to time give the Controller directions of a general character, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as to the exercise of the powers and discretions conferred on the Controller by, and the duties required to be discharged by the Controller under, this Act or any regulations or orders made thereunder, in relation to all matters which appear to him to affect the immigration policy of Singapore.

(2) The Controller shall give effect to all directions given under subsection (1).

Entry into and departure from Singapore

5. —(1) The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, prescribe approved routes and declare such immigration control posts, landing places, airports, train checkpoints or points of entry, as he may consider to be necessary for the purposes of this Act, to be immigration control posts, authorised landing places, authorised airports, authorised train checkpoints or authorised points of entry, as the case may be.

(2) No person shall, unless compelled by accident or other reasonable cause, enter or attempt to enter Singapore except at an authorised landing place, airport, train checkpoint or point of entry.

38/93]

(3) The Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, prescribe approved routes and declare such immigration control posts, places of embarkation, authorised airports, authorised points of departure, authorised train checkpoints or authorised departing places, as the case may be.

[13/77;
38/93]

(4) No person shall, unless compelled by accident or other reasonable cause, leave or attempt to leave Singapore except at an authorised place of embarkation, airport, point of departure, train checkpoint or departing place.

[13/77;
38/93]

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) or (4) shall be guilty of an offence.

[13/77]

Control of entry into and departure from Singapore

6. —(1) No person, other than a citizen of Singapore, shall enter or attempt to enter Singapore unless —

(a) he is in possession of a valid entry permit or re-entry permit lawfully issued to him under section 10 or 11;

(b) his name is endorsed upon a valid entry permit or re-entry permit in accordance with section 12, and he is in the company of the holder of that permit;

(c) he is in possession of a valid pass lawfully issued to him to enter Singapore; or

(d) he is exempted from this section by an order made under section 56.

[13/77]

(2) Any person who has entered or remained in Singapore in accordance with a pass lawfully issued under this Act shall complete an embarkation form and submit it together with his passport or other travel document for examination by an immigration officer at the time he leaves Singapore.

[13/77]

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be guilty of an offence and —

(a) in the case of an offence under subsection (1), shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months and shall also, subject to section 231 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68), be punished with caning with not less than 3 strokes, or where by virtue of that section he is not punishable with caning, he shall, in lieu of caning, be punished with a fine not exceeding $6,000;

(b) in the case of an offence under subsection (2), shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $4,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

41/95]

(4) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (1), it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the defendant attempted to enter Singapore in contravention of subsection (1)(c) if the defendant was found within the waters of the port and it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that —

(a) he was unable, or refused, to produce when requested to do so by a police officer or an immigration officer a valid passport, or other valid travel document, issued by the competent authority of any State or territory;

(b) he has no visible means of subsistence; or

(c) he had taken precautions to conceal his identity or presence from any police officer or immigration officer.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "port" means any place declared to be a port under section 3 of the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore Act (Cap. 170A).

Right of entry

7. —(1) A citizen of Singapore shall be entitled to enter Singapore without having obtained a permit or pass in that behalf under this Act.

(2) The burden of proof that any person is a citizen of Singapore shall lie upon that person.

Prohibited immigrants

8. —(1) Any person, not being a citizen of Singapore, who is a member of any of the prohibited classes as defined in subsection (3) or who, in the opinion of the Controller, is a member of any of the prohibited classes, is a prohibited immigrant.

(2) Subject to any exemption granted under section 56 —

(a) no prohibited immigrant who is a member of the prohibited class defined in subsection (3) (o) shall enter Singapore; and

(b) no other prohibited immigrant shall enter Singapore, unless he is in possession of a valid pass in that behalf issuable to a prohibited immigrant under the regulations.

(3) The following persons are members of the prohibited classes:

(a) any person who is unable to show that he has the means of supporting himself and his dependants (if any) or that he has definite employment awaiting him, or who is likely to become a pauper or a charge on the public;

(b) any person suffering from mental disorder or being a mental defective, or suffering from a contagious or infectious disease which makes his presence in Singapore dangerous to the community;

(ba) any person suffering from Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome or infected with the Human Immunodeficiency Virus;

(c) any person desiring to enter Singapore who refuses to submit to an examination after being required to do so under section 29(1);

(d) any person who —

(i) has been convicted in any country or state of an offence for which a sentence of imprisonment has been passed for any term;

(ii) has not received a free pardon; and

- (iii) by reason of the circumstances connected with that conviction is deemed by the Controller to be an undesirable immigrant;
- (e) any prostitute or any person who is living on or receiving or who, prior to entering Singapore, lived on or received the proceeds of prostitution;
- (f) any person who procures or attempts to bring into Singapore prostitutes or women or girls for the purpose of prostitution or other immoral purpose;
- (g) vagrants or habitual beggars;
- (h) any person whose entry into Singapore is, or at the time of his entry was, unlawful under this Act or any other written law for the time being in force;
- (i) any person who believes in or advocates the overthrow by force or violence of the Government or of any established government or of constituted law or authority or who disbelieves in or is opposed to established government, or who advocates the assassination of public officials, or who advocates or teaches the unlawful destruction of property;
- (j) any person who is a member of or affiliated with any organisation entertaining or teaching disbelief in or opposition to established government or advocating or teaching the duty, necessity or propriety of the unlawful assaulting or killing of any officer or officers, either of specific individuals or officers generally, of the Government or of any established government, because of his or their official character, or advocating or teaching the unlawful destruction of property;
- (k) any person who, in consequence of information received from any source or from any government through official or diplomatic channels, is considered by the Minister to be an undesirable immigrant;
- (l) any person who has been removed from any country or state by the government of that country or state on repatriation for any reason whatever and who, by reason of the circumstances connected therewith, is considered by the Controller to be an undesirable immigrant;
- (m) any person who, being required by any written law for the time being in force to be in possession of valid travel documents, is not in possession of those documents or is in possession of forged or altered travel documents or travel documents which do not fully comply with that written law;
- (n) the family and dependants of a prohibited immigrant; and
- (o) any person prohibited by order made under section 9 from entering Singapore.

[38/93]

(4) The burden of proof that any person seeking to enter Singapore is not a prohibited immigrant shall lie upon that person.

(4A) Where the Controller refuses to allow any person to enter Singapore on the ground that the person is a prohibited immigrant, the Controller shall, if so requested by the person, inform him of the class of prohibited immigrant of which, in the opinion of the Controller, he is a member.

(5) Subject to any exemption granted under section 56, if any prohibited immigrant enters Singapore otherwise than in accordance with a valid pass lawfully issued to him, he shall be guilty of an offence.

(6) Any person in possession of a permit issued to him under the provisions of this Act who, upon his arrival in Singapore, is refused permission to enter upon the ground that he is a prohibited immigrant, may appeal against the refusal, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(7) Notwithstanding sections 24, 25, 25A and 26, any person who appeals against such refusal shall be permitted to disembark and shall be detained in an immigration depot pending the determination of his appeal, unless released on a pass issued at the discretion of the Controller on such conditions as to furnishing security or otherwise as the Controller may think fit.

[41/95]

Power to prohibit or limit entry into Singapore

9. —(1) The Minister may, by order —

(a) where he thinks it expedient to do so in the interests of public security or by reason of any economic, industrial, social, educational or other conditions in Singapore —

(i) prohibit, either for a stated period or permanently, the entry or re-entry into Singapore of any person or class of persons;

(ii) limit the number of persons of any class who may enter Singapore within any period specified in the order;

(iii) limit the period during which any person or class of persons entering or re-entering Singapore may remain therein;

(b) prohibit the entry into Singapore of passengers brought to Singapore by any transportation company which refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this Act.

(1A) No order made under subsection (1) (a), except an order made in the interests of public security, shall apply to any person outside Singapore at the time when the order is made and who is in possession of a valid re-entry permit lawfully issued to him.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall not apply to any citizen of Singapore or to any person seeking to enter Singapore under and in accordance with any pass lawfully issued to that person.

(3) Every order made under subsection (1) (a) which relates to a class of persons, except an order made in the interests of public security, shall be presented to Parliament as soon as possible after publication in the Gazette and if a resolution is passed within the next subsequent 3 months after the order is so presented disapproving the order or any part thereof, the order or such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thenceforth cease to have effect but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder.

(4) Every order made under subsection (1) shall, unless otherwise expressed therein, come into force on the date of the making thereof, and shall be published in the Gazette.

(5) Any person who enters or re-enters or remains in Singapore in contravention of any order made under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term of not less than 2 years and not more than 4 years and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $6,000.

S 22/89]

(6) Where a person, who has been previously convicted of any offence which is punishable with imprisonment for a term of not less than 3 years, commits an offence under subsection (5) by the use of a passport or other travel document which bears a name different from that stated in the order made against him under subsection (1), he shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term of not less than 2 years and not more than 5 years and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $10,000 and to caning.

[35/84;

Entry permits

10. —(1) Any person seeking to enter Singapore who is not entitled so to enter as a citizen of Singapore or by virtue of a valid pass to enter Singapore issued to him or seeking to remain in Singapore after the expiry of such a pass may make application in that behalf in the manner prescribed to the Controller or to such other person whether within or outside Singapore as the Controller may, from time to time, appoint for the purpose.

(2) Upon application made under subsection (1) and upon payment of the prescribed fees, the Controller may issue to the applicant an entry permit in the prescribed form and shall, if the applicant is required by the provisions of any written law relating to passports for the time being in force in Singapore to have a visa to enter Singapore, issue a visa to the applicant on the production by him of his passport or other travel document and on payment of the fee prescribed by that written law and the visa shall remain valid until the expiry or cancellation of the entry permit issued to him.

(3) The Controller may, in issuing an entry permit under subsection (2), impose any condition as he thinks fit and may at any time vary any condition subject to which the entry permit is issued or impose any additional condition thereto.

[38/93]

(4) Before varying any condition or imposing any additional condition on an entry permit, the Controller shall notify the holder of the entry permit of his intention to do so and shall give the holder an opportunity to be heard as to why the condition of his entry permit should not be varied or the additional condition should not be imposed.

[38/93]

(5) Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Controller under this section may, within 30 days of being notified of the decision of the Controller, appeal by petition in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

[38/93]

Re-entry permits

11. —(1) Any person lawfully resident in Singapore, not being the holder of a valid pass or a citizen of Singapore, who seeks to leave Singapore temporarily, or within one month of so leaving Singapore, may make application to the Controller in the prescribed manner for the issue to him of a re-entry permit authorising him to re-enter Singapore.

(2) Upon application being made under subsection (1) and upon payment of the prescribed fee, the Controller may issue to the applicant a re-entry permit in the prescribed form and shall, if the applicant is required by the provisions of any written law relating to passports for the time being in force in Singapore to have a visa to enter Singapore, issue a visa to the applicant on the production by him of his passport or other travel document and on payment of the fee prescribed by that written law and the visa shall remain valid until the expiry or cancellation of the re-entry permit issued to him.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the Controller to issue to him a re-entry permit under this section may, within 30 days of the notification of the refusal to him, appeal by petition in writing to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

Endorsement of name of wife and children on permits, passes and certificates

12. Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, it shall be lawful for the Controller, on application made in that behalf in the prescribed form by the holder of, or by an applicant for, a permit, pass or certificate, to endorse upon the permit, pass or certificate issued to that person the name or names of the wife or child of that person.

Power to make inquiries

13. The Controller may, before the issue of a permit, pass or certificate under this Act or before making any endorsement thereon under section 12, make such inquiries or require the production of such evidence as he may think fit in order to satisfy himself as to the truth of any statement made in the application for the permit, pass or certificate.

Cancellation and declarations regarding permits and certificates

14. —(1) Where the holder of any permit seeks to enter Singapore accompanied by any child whose name is not endorsed upon that permit under section 12 and who is not otherwise entitled to enter Singapore under the provisions of this Act, the Controller may cancel the permit issued to that person.

(2) Where, upon the arrival in Singapore of any person to whom a permit or certificate has been issued, the Controller is satisfied, as a result of inquiries made under section 24, 25, 25A or 26, or from other information, that the permit or certificate was issued as a result of any false representation or concealment of a material fact the Controller may cancel the permit or certificate.

(3) Where at any time, during the period of validity of any permit or certificate, the Controller is satisfied that the holder of the permit or certificate is a prohibited immigrant, the Controller shall cancel the permit or certificate.

(4) Where any person has entered or remains in Singapore by virtue of a permit or certificate, and the Controller is satisfied that —

(a) any material statement made in or in connection with the application for the permit or certificate was false or misleading;

(b) the person is a prohibited immigrant; or

(c) the holder of the permit or certificate has contravened any condition stated in the permit or certificate, the Controller may cancel the permit or certificate issued to that person, and may declare at any time after the date of the entry or date of the issue of the permit or certificate that the presence of that person in Singapore is unlawful.

(5) On making any cancellation under subsection (2), (3) or (4) or on making any declaration under subsection (4), the Controller shall, by notification which, if the address of the person is known, shall be sent to him at that address and otherwise shall be published in such manner as the Controller thinks fit, inform the person affected thereby of the grounds on which the cancellation or declaration has been made.

(6) The person may appeal against the cancellation or declaration, as the case may be, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

Unlawful entry or presence in Singapore

15. —(1) A person shall not remain in Singapore after the cancellation of any permit or certificate, or after the making of a declaration under section 14 (4) or after the expiration or notification to him, in such manner as may be prescribed, of the cancellation of any pass relating to or issued to him unless he is otherwise entitled or authorised to remain in Singapore under the provisions of this Act or the regulations.

(2) A person shall not remain in Singapore in contravention of section 62.

[12/70]

(3) Any person who contravenes, without reasonable cause, this section shall be guilty of an offence and —

(a) in the case where he remains unlawfully for a period not exceeding 90 days, shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $4,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both;

(b) in the case where he remains unlawfully for a period exceeding 90 days, shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months and shall also, subject to section 231 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68), be punished with caning with not less than 3 strokes, or where by virtue of that section he is not punishable with caning, he shall, in lieu of caning, be punished with a fine not exceeding $6,000.

41/95]

Immigration signal

16. —(1) The master of every vessel which arrives in or is about to leave Singapore shall hoist the prescribed immigration signal and shall exhibit that signal until authorised by an immigration officer to haul it down.

[13/77]

(2) The master of a vessel who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Vessel to proceed to immigration or departure anchorage or other place ordered by immigration officer

17. —(1) The Controller may, by notification in the Gazette, declare any place within the limits of any port to be an immigration anchorage, either for vessels generally or for vessels of a class specified in the notification.

[13/77]

(2) The master of every vessel which arrives at or is about to leave a port where an immigration anchorage, either for vessels generally or for vessels of a class to which that vessel belongs, has been declared shall, subject to any directions given under subsection (4), forthwith navigate his vessel to that anchorage and shall remain there until an immigration officer gives him permission to leave.

[13/77]

(3) The master of every vessel which arrives in or is about to leave Singapore shall, if so ordered by an immigration officer, anchor or tie up his vessel at such place as may be ordered, and shall remain there until an immigration officer gives him permission to leave.

[13/77]

(4) The master of a vessel who contravenes or fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with this section or any order made or directions given thereunder shall be guilty of an offence.

Aircraft arriving in or departing from Singapore

18. —(1) The captain of every aircraft which arrives in or leaves Singapore shall land his aircraft at, or fly his aircraft away from, an authorised airport.

[13/77]

(2) The captain of an aircraft who contravenes or fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Train arriving in or leaving Singapore

18A. —(1) The master of every train which arrives in or leaves Singapore shall stop his train at, or drive his train away from, an authorised train checkpoint.

[38/93]

(2) The master of a train who contravenes or fails, without reasonable cause, to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

Persons not to board or leave vessel until examination completed

19. —(1) Except under and in accordance with any authority granted by an immigration officer, no person other than —

(a) the pilot;

(b) any Government officer boarding the vessel on duty;

(c) the owner, charterer or agent of the vessel; or

(d) a consular officer or accredited representative of the country to which the vessel belongs, shall leave or board a vessel arriving in Singapore nor may any person (other than the crew of a vessel carrying any such person) approach within 200 metres of the vessel, until the vessel has been examined by an immigration officer and the immigration signal has been hauled down, or board a vessel departing from Singapore after it has been examined by an immigration officer just before its departure.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and every such person leaving a vessel in contravention of subsection (1) shall, if so required by an immigration officer, return forthwith to the vessel and remain thereon and the master of the vessel shall be bound to re-embark that person.

Prohibition on disembarking from or boarding ships without permission of immigration officer

20. —(1) It shall be the duty of the master and the owner or charterer of every vessel which arrives in Singapore to prevent any person other than a person specified in section 19 (1) (a),

(b), (c) or (d) from disembarking from or boarding the vessel until the disembarkation or boarding has been authorised by an immigration officer, and for that purpose any means reasonably necessary may be used.

(2) Where any person disembarks from or boards any vessel before being authorised by an immigration officer in that behalf, that person, the master and the owner or charterer of the vessel shall each be guilty of an offence under this section.

(3) It shall be no defence to a prosecution under this section that the master, owner or charterer did not permit or do anything to facilitate the disembarkation or boarding of the person.

(4) It shall be a good defence to a prosecution under this section that the master, owner or charterer took every reasonable precaution to prevent the disembarkation or boarding of the person.

(5) The master of the vessel from which any person has disembarked before the disembarkation has been authorised by an immigration officer shall be bound to re-embark that person and any master refusing to re-embark that person shall be guilty of an offence.

(6) Any person guilty of an offence under this section shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $4,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

Prohibition of removal of articles before examination

21. —(1) Except with the authority of an immigration officer, no article or thing shall be removed or taken from, or put on board, any vessel until the vessel has been examined by an immigration officer under section 19.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Production of lists and persons by masters, etc., of vessels

22. —(1) The master, owner, agent or charterer of every vessel arriving in or leaving Singapore shall —

(a) furnish to an immigration officer a complete list of the members of the crew in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed;

(b) produce to that officer for inspection and interrogation all the members of the crew;

(c) furnish to that officer in triplicate identification cards of each member of the crew in such form as may be prescribed;

(d) submit to such search of his vessel as may be necessary to establish the presence or absence of other persons on board;

(e) produce his ship's papers; and

(f) report the presence on board of any stowaway or any unauthorised person or any person proceeding to any state or country on his removal from any other state or country by the competent authorities of that state or country.

[38/93]

(2) In the case of vessels carrying passengers, the master, owner, agent or charterer shall, in addition —

(a) furnish a complete list of all passengers in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed;

(b) furnish in relation to every passenger disembarking in or embarking from Singapore such particulars in such form as may be prescribed; and

(c) produce all passengers for inspection and interrogation.

[13/77; 38/93]

(3) The master, owner, agent or charterer of a vessel who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2), and any person who hinders or obstructs any search of a vessel under subsection (1) (d), shall each be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

(4) If any person whose presence has not been reported under subsection (1) (f) is found on board a vessel, the master, owner, agent and charterer of the vessel shall each be guilty of an offence and shall each be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000 in respect of each such person.

[38/93]

(5) In any proceedings under this section, the certificate in writing of an immigration officer who boarded or examined any particular vessel to the effect that the vessel carried on arrival in Singapore a total number of seamen corresponding in description to the particulars on the identification cards furnished under subsection (1) (c) shall be conclusive proof that the vessel did on arrival carry that number of seamen.

Production of lists and persons by captain, etc., of aircraft

23. —(1) The captain, owner, agent or charterer of every aircraft arriving in or leaving Singapore shall —

(a) furnish to an immigration officer a complete list of all passengers of his aircraft as prescribed under section 22 (2) (a) or in accordance with Annex 9 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation;

(b) furnish to that officer in relation to every passenger landing in or departing from Singapore such particulars in such form as may be prescribed;

(c) furnish to that officer a complete list of the members of the crew of his aircraft as prescribed under section 22 (1) (a) or in accordance with Annex 9 to the Convention on International Civil Aviation;

(d) produce the members of the crew and passengers of that aircraft for inspection and interrogation as directed, either generally or specifically, by an immigration officer;

(e) submit to such search of his aircraft as may be necessary to establish the presence or absence of other persons on board; and

(f) report the presence on board of any stowaway or any unauthorised person or any person proceeding to any state or country on his removal from any other state or country by the competent authorities of that state or country.

(2) The captain, owner, agent or charterer of an aircraft who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1), and any person who hinders or obstructs any search of an aircraft under subsection (1) (e), shall each be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

(3) If any person whose presence has not been reported under subsection (1) (f) is found on board an aircraft, the captain, owner, agent and charterer of the aircraft shall each be guilty of an offence and shall each be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000 in respect of each such person.

[38/93]

(4) In any proceedings under this section, the certificate in writing of an immigration officer who boarded or examined any particular aircraft to the effect that the aircraft carried on arrival in Singapore a total number of crew corresponding in description to the particulars on the list furnished under subsection (1) (c) shall be conclusive proof that the aircraft did on arrival carry that number of crew.

Production of lists and persons by master, etc., of train

23A. —(1) The master, owner, agent or charterer of every train arriving in or leaving Singapore shall, whenever required to do so by an immigration officer —

(a) furnish to that officer a complete list of the members of the crew in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed;

(b) produce to that officer for inspection and interrogation all the members of the crew;

(c) submit to such search of his train as may be necessary to establish the presence or absence of other persons on board; and

(d) report the presence on board of any stowaway or any unauthorised person or any person proceeding to any state or country on his removal from any other state or country by the competent authorities of that state or country.

[38/93]

(2) In the case of a train carrying passengers, the master shall, in addition —

(a) furnish a complete list of all passengers in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed;

(b) furnish in relation to every passenger disembarking in or embarking from Singapore such particulars in such form as may be prescribed; and

(c) produce all passengers for inspection and interrogation.

[38/93]

(3) The master, owner, agent or charterer of a train who contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (1) or (2), and any person who hinders or obstructs any search of a train under subsection (1) (c), shall each be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

(4) If any person whose presence has not been reported under subsection (1) (d) is found on board the train, the master, owner, agent and charterer of the train shall each be guilty of an offence and shall each be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000 in respect of each such person.

[38/93]

(5) In any proceedings under this section, the certificate in writing of an immigration officer who boarded or examined any particular train to the effect that the train on arrival in Singapore carried a total number of crew corresponding in description to the particulars on the list furnished under subsection (1) (a) shall be conclusive proof that the train did on arrival carry that number of crew.

[38/93]

Examination of persons arriving by sea

24. —(1) Every person arriving by sea in Singapore shall appear before an immigration officer at such time and place as that officer may direct.

(2) The immigration officer, after such examination as he may consider necessary, shall inform any person whom he considers to be prohibited from entering Singapore under the provisions of this Act or any regulations or orders made thereunder of his finding, and the person, if still aboard the vessel, shall not disembark in Singapore or, if he has disembarked for the purposes of the examination, shall return forthwith to the vessel and remain thereon.

[38/93]

(3) The master, owner, agent or charterer of the vessel shall likewise forthwith be informed in writing by the immigration officer of his finding and the master, owner, agent or charterer shall not permit the person to disembark in Singapore, or, if the person has disembarked, whether for the purpose of examination or otherwise, shall be bound to re-embark him.

[38/93]

(4) Any person who —

(a) refuses or neglects to appear before an immigration officer as required by subsection (1) or who leaves the place of examination without or otherwise than in accordance with the authorisation of that officer;

(b) after being informed by an immigration officer that he is prohibited from entering Singapore, either disembarks in Singapore or refuses or neglects to return forthwith to his vessel, as the case may be; or

(c) being the master, owner, agent or charterer of a vessel, permits any person to disembark in Singapore, or refuses to re-embark any person, after being informed by an immigration officer that the person is prohibited from entering Singapore or that the person has refused or neglected to appear before an immigration officer as required by subsection (1) or that he had left the place of examination without or otherwise than in accordance with the authorisation of that officer, shall each be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

(5) Where any person either disembarks in Singapore or refuses or neglects to return to his vessel in contravention of this section, an immigration officer may require that person to return to his vessel and may take such steps, including the use of force, as may be reasonably necessary to compel that person to return, and the master, owner, agent or charterer of the vessel shall be bound to re-embark that person and to remove him from Singapore.

[38/93]

(6) The master, owner, agent or charterer of a vessel may use such force as may be reasonably necessary to enable him to comply with subsections (3) and (5).

[38/93]

Examination of persons arriving at authorised airport

25. —(1) Every person arriving by air at any authorised airport in Singapore shall appear before an immigration officer at such time and place as that officer may direct.

[38/93]

(2) The immigration officer, after such examination as he may consider necessary, shall inform any person whom he considers to be prohibited from entering Singapore under the provisions of this Act or any regulations or orders made thereunder of his finding, and the person shall not leave the precincts of the airport except for a place approved by that officer, and shall leave and depart from Singapore by the first available means in accordance with the instructions of that officer.

[38/93]

(3) The captain, owner, agent or charterer of the aircraft in which the person arrived shall, if so required by the immigration officer, remove the person from Singapore by the same aircraft.

[38/93]

(4) Any person who —

(a) refuses or neglects to appear before an immigration officer as required by subsection (1) or who leaves the place of examination without or otherwise than in accordance with the authorisation of that officer;

(b) after being informed by an immigration officer that he is prohibited from entering Singapore, leaves the precincts of an airport without the permission of that officer, or refuses or neglects to proceed to or remain at a place approved by that officer;

(c) refuses or fails to leave Singapore in accordance with the instructions of an immigration officer given under subsection (2); or

(d) being the captain, owner, agent or charterer of the aircraft in which any person arrived in Singapore, refuses or neglects to remove the person from Singapore after being informed by an immigration officer that the person is prohibited from entering Singapore or that the person has refused or neglected to appear before an immigration officer as required by subsection (1) or that he has left the place of examination without, or otherwise than in accordance with, the authorisation of that officer, shall each be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

(5) Where any person leaves the precincts of an airport in contravention of this section or refuses to leave and depart from Singapore in accordance with the instructions of an immigration officer given under subsection (2), the immigration officer may take such steps, including the use of force, as may be reasonably necessary to compel that person to return to the precincts of the airport or to comply with those instructions, as the case may be.

Examination of persons arriving by train

25A. —(1) Every person arriving by train at any authorised train checkpoint in Singapore shall appear before an immigration officer at such time and place as that officer may direct.

(2) The immigration officer, after such examination as he may consider necessary, shall inform any person whom he considers to be prohibited from entering Singapore under the provisions of this Act or any regulations or orders made thereunder of his finding, and the person shall not leave the precincts of the checkpoint except for a place approved by that officer, and shall leave and depart from Singapore by the first available means in accordance with the instructions of that officer.

(3) The master, owner, agent or charterer of the train in which the person arrived shall, if so required by the immigration officer, remove the person from Singapore by the same train.

[38/93]

(4) Any person who —

(a) refuses or neglects to appear before an immigration officer as required by subsection (1) or who leaves the place of examination without, or otherwise than in accordance with, the authorisation of that officer;

(b) after being informed by an immigration officer that he is prohibited from entering Singapore, leaves the precincts of an authorised train checkpoint without the permission of that officer, or refuses or neglects to proceed to or remain at a place approved by that officer;

(c) refuses or fails to leave Singapore in accordance with the instruction of an immigration officer given under subsection (2); or

(d) being the master, owner, agent or charterer of the train in which any person arrived in Singapore, refuses or neglects to remove the person from Singapore after being informed by an immigration officer that the person is prohibited from entering Singapore or that the person has refused or neglected to appear before an immigration officer as required by subsection (1) or that he has left the place of examination without, or otherwise than in accordance with, the authorisation of that officer, shall each be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

(5) Where any person leaves the precincts of an authorised train checkpoint in contravention of this section or refuses to leave and depart from Singapore in accordance with the instructions of an immigration officer given under subsection (2), the immigration officer may take such steps, including the use of force, as may be reasonably necessary to compel that person to return to the precincts of the checkpoint or to comply with those instructions, as the case may be.

[38/93]

Examination of persons entering Singapore by land or at a place other than an authorised landing place or airport

26. —(1) Every person who enters Singapore by land shall proceed to the nearest immigration control post and shall appear before an immigration officer in charge of the post and shall, if so required by that officer, furnish particulars about himself in such form as may be prescribed.

[13/77]

(2) Every person arriving by sea or air in Singapore at any place, other than at an authorised landing place or airport, shall forthwith proceed to and appear before the nearest immigration officer.

[13/77]

(3) The immigration officer before whom any person appears in accordance with this section shall, if he considers that that person is prohibited from entering Singapore under the provisions of this Act or any regulations or orders made thereunder, inform him of his finding and that person shall in accordance with the instructions of that officer forthwith leave and depart from Singapore.

[13/77]

(4) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $4,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both.

[13/77]

Power to send person to depot for further examination

27. —(1) Where an immigration officer is in doubt as to the right of any person to enter Singapore, it shall be lawful for that officer to direct the person to an immigration depot and, in that case, that person shall proceed forthwith to that depot and shall remain there until permitted to leave by that officer.

(2) No person shall, except on the written order of the Minister, be so detained for any period exceeding 7 days except that the Controller may, in his discretion, and pending the completion of inquiries regarding that person, release him from the immigration depot on such terms and conditions as the Controller may think fit, and for that purpose the Controller may issue to that person a pass in the prescribed form.

(3) Any person who refuses or neglects to comply with any directions given by an immigration officer under subsection (1), or who leaves an immigration depot in contravention of that subsection, shall be guilty of an offence.

Interrogation of travellers

28. —(1) Any person who arrives in Singapore or who is about to leave Singapore shall —

(a) fully and truthfully answer all questions and enquiries put to him by an immigration officer or a police officer tending, directly or indirectly, to establish his identity, nationality or occupation or bearing on any of the restrictions contained in this Act or the regulations or any absolute or conditional liability on his part to any military, naval or air force service under any state or country; and

(b) disclose and produce to any such officer on demand all documents in his possession relating to those matters.

[21/73]

(2) All such answers and documents shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings under this Act against the person making, disclosing or producing the same.

[21/73]

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as rendering any such answer inadmissible in any other proceedings in which they would otherwise be admissible.

[21/73]

(4) Any person who —

(a) refuses to answer any question or enquiry put to him under subsection (1);

(b) knowingly gives any false or misleading answer to any such question or enquiry;

(c) refuses or fails to produce any document in his possession when required to do so under subsection (1); or

(d) knowingly produces any false or misleading document, shall be guilty of an offence.

[21/73]

Medical examination

29. —(1) For the purpose of exercising his powers and carrying out his functions and duties under this Act or the regulations, an immigration officer may require any person who desires to enter Singapore, or to whom a permit, pass or certificate has been issued, to submit to an examination by a Government medical officer.

(2) The Government medical officer shall, upon completion of an examination of a person under subsection (1), submit a copy of the results of the examination to the Controller.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law or rule of law, a Government medical officer shall, if required by the Controller for the purposes of exercising his powers and carrying out his functions and duties under this Act or the regulations, furnish the Controller with a copy of any medical record relating to a person who has been examined pursuant to subsection (1) as the Controller may require.

(4) Any person to whom a permit, pass or certificate has been issued who, without reasonable excuse, refuses to submit to an examination when required by an immigration officer under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

(5) The Controller may cancel the permit, pass or certificate of any person who refuses to submit to any examination when required to do so by an immigration officer under subsection (1).

(6) On making any cancellation under subsection (5), the Controller shall, by notification which, if the address of the person is known, shall be sent to him at that address and otherwise shall be published in such manner as the Controller thinks fit, inform the person affected of the grounds on which the cancellation has been made.

(7) A person whose permit, pass or certificate is cancelled under subsection (5) may, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, appeal against the cancellation to the Minister whose decision shall be final.

(8) For the purpose of this section "Government medical officer" includes a medical practitioner registered under the Medical Registration Act (Cap. 174) who is employed in any hospital or medical institution and who is designated by name or office by the Controller in writing for the purposes of this section.

Immigration officer may give instructions to prevent evasion of examination

30. —(1) An immigration officer may give such instructions as may be reasonably necessary to ensure that no passenger or member of a crew evades examination either of his person or effects.

(2) Any person who refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with any instructions given under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Removal of prohibited immigrants from Singapore

31. —(1) If during the examination of any person arriving in Singapore or after such inquiry as may be necessary that person is found to be a prohibited immigrant, the Controller shall, subject to the provisions of the regulations, prohibit him from disembarking or may, in his discretion, detain him at an immigration depot or other place designated by the Controller.

(2) The person shall be liable to be removed from Singapore to his place of embarkation or to the country of his birth or citizenship or to any other port or place designated by the Controller.

[38/93]

(3) For the purposes of this Part, any reference to a person who has arrived in Singapore includes a reference to a person who has arrived but has not yet entered Singapore.

[38/93]

Power of Controller to remove prohibited immigrants

31A. —(1) The Controller may, at any time, by order in writing, direct any person mentioned in subsection (2) to remove, within such period as may be specified in the order, a prohibited immigrant who has arrived in Singapore.

[38/93]

(2) An order under subsection (1) shall be made against and served on —

(a) the master of the vessel, aircraft or train which first brought the prohibited immigrant to Singapore; or

(b) the master of any other vessel, aircraft or train belonging to the same owner or chartered by the same charterer of the vessel, aircraft or train mentioned in paragraph (a).

[38/93]

(3) The Controller may take such action or use such force as may be necessary to ensure that an order under this section is complied with.

[38/93]

(4) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (3), the Controller may, by order in writing, direct the person against whom an order under this section is made, not to move his vessel, aircraft or train unless the prohibited immigrant named in that order is on board the vessel, aircraft or train.

[38/93]

Removal of illegal immigrants

32. —(1) Any person who is convicted of an offence under section 5, 6, 8 or 9 shall be liable to be removed from Singapore by order of the Controller.

(2) No citizen of Singapore convicted of an offence under section 5 shall be ordered to be removed from Singapore under this section.

Removal of persons unlawfully remaining in Singapore

33. —(1) Where the presence of any person in Singapore is unlawful by reason of section 15 or 62, that person shall, whether or not any proceedings are taken against him in respect of any offence under that section, be liable to be removed from Singapore by order of the Controller.

(2) Any person in respect of whom an order of removal has been made under subsection (1) may appeal to the Minister in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

(3) There shall be no appeal under subsection (2) against an order of removal under subsection (1) made in respect of any person whose presence in Singapore is unlawful under section 15 or 62 by reason of the expiry of any pass relating to or issued to him.

(4) An appeal under subsection (2) shall not operate as a stay of execution of any order of removal under subsection (1).

[38/93]

(5) Where an order of removal under subsection (1) has been made in respect of any person, any permit, certificate or pass to enter or remain in Singapore issued to him under this Act or the regulations shall cease to be valid.

[38/93]

(6) Nothing in this Part or the regulations shall require the Minister, the Controller or any other public officer to disclose any fact, produce any document or assign any reason for the making of any removal order under this Part which he considers it to be against the public interest to do so.

[38/93]

Detention of persons ordered to be removed

34. —(1) Where any person is ordered to be removed from Singapore under the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Controller to order that person to be detained in custody for such period as may be necessary for the purpose of making arrangements for his removal.

(2) Any person detained under subsection (1) who appeals under section 33 (2) against the order of removal may, in the discretion of the Controller, be released, pending the determination of his appeal, on such conditions as to furnishing security or otherwise as the Controller may think fit.

(3) Subject to the determination of any appeal under section 33, any person who is ordered to be removed from Singapore may be placed on board a suitable vessel, aircraft or train by any police officer or immigration officer, and may be lawfully detained on board that vessel, aircraft or train, so long as the vessel, aircraft or train is within the limits of Singapore.

[38/93]

(4) Any person who is detained in custody in pursuance of an order made by the Controller under subsection (1) may be so detained in any prison, police station or immigration depot, or in any other place appointed for the purpose by the Controller.

Power to arrest person liable to removal

35. Any person reasonably believed to be a person liable to removal from Singapore under this Act may be arrested without warrant by any immigration officer generally or specially authorised by the Controller in that behalf or by a police officer, and may be detained in any prison, police station or immigration depot for a period not exceeding 14 days pending a decision as to whether an order for his removal should be made.

[21/73]

Unlawful return after removal

36. Any person who, having been removed or otherwise lawfully sent out of Singapore, enters or resides in Singapore without the permission in writing of the Controller shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term of not less than one year and not more than 3 years and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $6,000, and shall in addition be liable to be removed from Singapore.

[35/84;

Performance of duties of immigration officers

37. —(1) Immigration officers appointed under this Act shall perform the duties imposed on them by this Act and the regulations, and shall also perform such duties as are required of them by the Controller, either directly or through any other officer.

(2) No action taken by any such officer under or for any purpose of this Act shall be deemed to be invalid or unauthorised by reason only that it was not taken by the officer specially appointed or detailed for the purpose.

(3) Every immigration officer shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Penal Code (Cap. 224).

Authority of immigration officer to arrest and prosecute

38. —(1) Every immigration officer appointed under this Act shall have the authority and powers of a police officer to enforce any of the provisions of this Act relating to arrest, detention or removal.

(2) Every immigration officer shall have the authority to appear in court and conduct any prosecution in respect of any offence under this Act or the regulations.

(3) In any case relating to the commission of an offence under this Act or the regulations, an immigration officer shall have all the powers of a police officer under the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) in relation to an investigation into a seizable offence.

Power to summon witnesses, etc.

39. —(1) The Controller may, for the purpose of any inquiry under this Act, summon and examine witnesses on oath or affirmation, and may require the production of documents relevant to the inquiry.

(2) Any person summoned as a witness under subsection (1) who fails, without reasonable excuse, to attend at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or who, having attended, refuses to answer any question that may lawfully be put to him or to produce any document which it is in his power to produce, shall be guilty of an offence.

Exclusion of judicial review

39A. —(1) There shall be no judicial review in any court of any act done or decision made by the Minister or the Controller under any provision of this Act except in regard to any question relating to compliance with any procedural requirement of this Act or the regulations governing that act or decision.

[38/93]

(2) In this section, “judicial review” includes proceedings instituted by way of —

(a) an application for any of the prerogative orders of mandamus, prohibition and certiorari;

(b) an application for a declaration or an injunction;

(c) any writ of habeas corpus; or

(d) any other suit or action relating to or arising out of any decision made or act done in pursuance of any power conferred upon the Minister or the Controller by any provision of this Act.

[38/93]

Duty of police officers to execute orders

40. All police officers shall, when so requested by an immigration officer, receive and execute according to the tenor thereof any written order of the Controller, and any warrant of the Controller for the arrest, detention or removal of any person made under the provisions of this Act.

Restriction on discharge of member of crew

41. —(1) When any seaman is about to be or is discharged or paid off in Singapore, the master, owner, charterer or agent shall so notify the Controller.

(2) No member of a crew who has been discharged or paid off shall be left in Singapore unless either —

(a) he is a citizen of Singapore; or

(b) he is in possession of a valid permit or pass.

(3) Where there has been any contravention of subsection (2), the master, owner, charterer, agent or consignee of the vessel, aircraft or train in which the person concerned was employed shall be liable for the maintenance of that person and for the cost of his repatriation to his place of birth or citizenship or, if the master, owner, charterer, agent or consignee so elects, to such other place as may be approved by the Controller.

[38/93]

Signing on or bringing as member of the crew any person with intent to land contrary to this Act

42. Any transportation company and any person, including the master and the owner of a vessel, aircraft or train arriving in Singapore, who —

(a) has knowingly signed on the ship's articles or brought to Singapore as a member of the crew of the vessel, aircraft or train any person with intent to permit that person to enter Singapore contrary to the provisions of this Act or the regulations; or

(b) represents to an immigration officer that that person is a bona fide member of the crew of the vessel, aircraft or train, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $4,000 and not less than $200 in respect of each such person.

[38/93]

Security to prevent unlawful landing

43. —(1) An immigration officer may demand security from the master, owner, charterer or agent or consignee of any vessel, aircraft or train from which he has reasonable grounds to believe that any person is about to disembark in or enter Singapore in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the regulations, and may refuse to release the vessel, aircraft or train from examination until the security is furnished.

[38/93]

(2) The Controller may, if satisfied that any person has disembarked in or entered Singapore from any vessel, aircraft or train, in respect of which security has been furnished under subsection (1), in contravention of any provisions of this Act or the regulations, direct the forfeiture of the security or any part thereof.

[38/93]

(3) The Controller shall not direct the forfeiture of any security under subsection (2) if he is satisfied that the master, owner, charterer, agent or consignee took every reasonable precaution to prevent any person from so disembarking in or entering Singapore.

(4) Where an immigration officer in lieu of requiring a deposit under subsection (1) requires security by a bond with or without sureties, then the bond shall be in the prescribed form.

Reports as to persons failing to continue their journey

44. —(1) Where any through passenger on or member of the crew of any vessel, aircraft or train fails to continue his journey in the vessel, aircraft or train in circumstances from which it may reasonably be inferred that the passenger or member of the crew has remained in Singapore, the master of the vessel, aircraft or train, as the case may be, shall notify an immigration officer or a police officer of the failure of the passenger or member of the crew to continue his journey.

[21/73;
38/93]

(2) Any master who fails to comply with subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

Repatriation

45. —(1) Any person residing in Singapore who —

(a) is not a citizen of Singapore;

(b) is by reason of destitution, infirmity or mental incapacity, unable to obtain employment or to support himself and his family (if any);

(c) is unable to pay the cost of his passage and of the passages of his family (if any) to the country of his birth or citizenship; and

(d) is or is likely to become a charge upon the public or on a charitable institution, may apply to the Controller for the repatriation of himself and his family (if any) at the cost of the Government.

(2) Upon an application under subsection (1), if the Controller is satisfied, after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, that the person has or is about to become a charge on the public or on a charitable institution and is unable to pay the cost of the repatriation of himself and his family (if any) and that no government, organisation, company or person is liable or willing to pay the cost of repatriation, the Controller may authorise the payment of the cost subject to the condition specified in subsection (3).

(3) Any person repatriated at the cost of the Government shall enter into an undertaking, in such form as may be prescribed, that he will not return to Singapore without the sanction in writing of the Controller.

(4) Such sanction shall be conditional upon the person refunding to the Controller all costs and charges incurred in the repatriation of the person and his family (if any) and shall be subject to such other conditions as the Controller may consider expedient.

(5) Any person repatriated at the cost of the Government under this section who enters or attempts to enter Singapore without the sanction of the Controller under subsection (3), or who having entered Singapore with such sanction, fails or neglects to comply with any condition upon which the sanction was given, shall be guilty of an offence.

Masters, owners, etc., liable for expenses

46. —(1) If any person —

(a) enters Singapore from any vessel, aircraft or train contrary to the provisions of this Act or the regulations; or

(b) disembarks from any vessel, aircraft or train on which he has been re-embarked or to which he has been returned under section 19, 20, 24, 25 or 25A, the master, owner, charterer and agent thereof shall be jointly and severally liable for all expenses incurred by the Government in respect of the detention and maintenance of the person and his removal from Singapore.

(2) The expenses shall be recoverable as a debt due to the Government from the master, owner, charterer and agent of the vessel, aircraft or train jointly and severally.

[38/93]

Obligation to afford free passage

47. —(1) When an order of removal is made under the provisions of this Act in respect of any person who has entered Singapore contrary to the provisions of this Act or the regulations, and the person was brought to Singapore in a vessel, aircraft or train, the master of the vessel, aircraft or train, and also the master of any vessel, aircraft or train belonging to the same owners or chartered by the same charterers, shall, if required in writing by the Controller, receive the person on board his vessel, aircraft or train and afford him free of charge a passage to the port or place at which the person embarked for Singapore or to any other port or place designated by the Controller and proper accommodation and maintenance during the voyage, flight or journey.

[38/93]

(2) No master shall be liable under subsection (1) unless the order of removal has been made by the Controller within 12 months from the date on which the person entered Singapore.

(3) A master of a vessel, aircraft or train who fails to comply with this section shall be guilty of an offence.

[38/93]

Power to detain vessel

48. —(1) The Controller may by writing under his hand authorise the Director of Marine to detain any vessel in connection with which an offence under this Act is reasonably believed to have been or to be about to be committed, and the vessel may then be detained either at the place where it is found or at any place to which the Controller may order it to be brought.

(1A) The Controller shall give notice to the master, owner, charterer or agent of the vessel of the detention of the vessel.

(2) For the purposes of the detention and other lawful dealing with the vessel, the Director of Marine shall have power to muster the crew and may, if he considers it necessary to do so, place a police guard on board.

(3) The detention shall be for safe custody only, and shall cease if a bond with 2 sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the Controller is given by the master, owner, charterer or agent of the vessel for the payment of any fine, costs, expenses or charges incurred under this Act in respect of any offence or default thereunder.

[38/93]

(4) If default is made in the payment of any such fine, costs, expenses or charges, the Director of Marine may seize the vessel and the vessel shall be declared forfeited to the Government by order of a court of competent jurisdiction upon the application of the Attorney-General.

(4A) Any vessel so forfeited shall be sold free of all encumbrances.

[38/93]

(5) The proceeds of sale of a vessel under this section shall, notwithstanding any rule of law relating to priority of claims, be applied first in payment of any fine, costs, expenses or charges incurred under this Act and of any costs incurred in and about the sale and the proceedings leading thereto, and the balance shall be paid to the owner of the vessel or other person lawfully entitled to the proceeds thereof.

[38/93]

(6) Section 3 (1) (r) of the High Court (Admiralty Jurisdiction) Act (Cap. 123) shall be construed as extending to any claim in respect of a liability incurred by the owner of a vessel under this Act.

[38/93]

Power to seize, detain and forfeit vehicles or vessels below 76 tonnes

49. —(1) Any vehicle or vessel below 76 tonnes that is used, or in respect of which there is reasonable cause to suspect that it has been or that it is about to be used, in the commission of any offence under this Act or the regulations may be seized and detained at any place either on land or in the territorial waters of Singapore —

(a) by the Controller, or any immigration officer authorised in that behalf by the Controller in writing under his hand; or

(b) by any police officer authorised in that behalf by a Deputy Commissioner of Police in writing under his hand.

(2) The seizing officer shall forthwith give notice in writing of the seizure and the grounds thereof to the owner, charterer or agent of the vehicle or vessel so seized or detained, either by delivering the notice to him in person or by post at his place of office or abode, if known.

(3) The notice under subsection (2) shall not be required to be given where the seizure or detention is made in the presence of or with the knowledge of the offender or the owner or his agent, as the case may be.

[60/73]

(4) Any vehicle or vessel liable to seizure or detention under subsection (1) shall be liable to forfeiture.

[60/73]

(5) An order for the forfeiture or for the release of any vehicle or vessel liable to forfeiture under this section shall be made by the court before which the prosecution with regard thereto has been held.

[60/73]

(6) An order for the forfeiture of a vehicle or vessel shall be made if it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that an offence under this Act or the regulations has been committed and that the vehicle or vessel was used in the commission of the offence, notwithstanding that no person may have been charged with or convicted of the offence.

[60/73]

(7) The Controller may sell any vehicle or vessel forfeited under this section.

(8) The proceeds of the sale shall, after payment of the expenses of the sale, be applied in payment of any fine, costs or charges incurred under this Act and any balance remaining shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

[60/73]

Power of interrogation

50. —(1) Any person reasonably believed to be a person liable to removal from Singapore under any of the provisions of this Act may be questioned by an immigration officer.

(2) The person shall fully and truthfully answer all questions and enquiries put to him by the immigration officer tending, directly or indirectly, to establish his identity, nationality or occupation or bearing on any of the restrictions contained in this Act or the regulations, and shall disclose and produce to that officer on demand all documents in his possession relating to those matters.

(3) All such answers and documents shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings under this Act against the person making or producing the same.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as rendering any such answers inadmissible in any other proceedings in which they would otherwise be admissible.

Power of search and arrest

51. —(1) Any immigration officer or any other officer generally or specially authorised in writing in that behalf by the Controller, and any officer of the Customs and Excise Department acting under the instructions of such immigration officer, and any police officer may without a warrant and with or without assistance —

(a) enter and search any premises; and

(b) stop and search any vehicle, train, vessel or person, or search any aircraft, whether in a public place or not,

if he has reason to believe that any evidence of the commission of an offence under this Act or the regulations is likely to be found on the premises or person or in the vehicle, vessel, aircraft or train, and may seize any evidence so found.

[21/73;

13/77;

38/93]

(2) No woman shall be searched under this section except by a woman.

(3) Any police officer, immigration officer or customs officer may arrest without warrant any person who he reasonably believes has committed an offence under this Act or the regulations.

(4) Where any person is arrested by an immigration officer or customs officer under subsection (3), the immigration officer or customs officer shall comply with sections 35 and 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68) as if he were a police officer.

Person registered under Enlistment Act

52. —(1) An immigration officer may prevent any person from leaving Singapore and require him to surrender his passport to him if he has reason to believe that that person is a person subject to the Enlistment Act (Cap. 93) who has been registered under section 3 of that Act or is deemed to be registered or is liable to be registered under that Act and is attempting to leave Singapore without an exit permit issued by the proper authority.

[13/77]

(2) For the purposes of this section, “person subject to the Enlistment Act” and “proper authority” shall have the meanings assigned to them by the Enlistment Act (Cap. 93).

Registration of particulars for purposes of identification

53. The provisions of the Registration of Criminals Act (Cap. 268) relating to persons ordered to be expelled from Singapore shall apply to persons ordered to be removed from Singapore under the provisions of this Act or persons who have been found guilty of an offence under section 57 (1) (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), and for the purpose of so applying that Act an immigration officer shall be deemed to be a police officer.

[13/77]

Counterfoils, etc., to be prima facie evidence

54. In any proceedings under this Act or at the hearing of any charge for an offence under this Act, any counterfoil or counterpart of any permit, pass, certificate or other document issued under this Act or the regulations and purporting to be signed by the Controller or by an immigration officer generally or specially authorised in that behalf by the Controller may be produced in evidence without further proof and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and shall, unless the contrary be proved, be presumed to be a true statement of the relevant contents of the permit, pass, certificate or other document to which it relates.

[13/77]

Regulations

55. —(1) The Minister may make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act for all or any of the following purposes:

- (a) prescribing anything which is to be or may be prescribed under the provisions of this Act;
- (b) prescribing the forms to be used for the purposes of this Act;
- (c) prescribing —
 - (i) the period for which permits shall be valid;

(1A) Where, in the case of any offence under subsection (1) (e), it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has at the same time employed more than 5 immigration offenders, the defendant shall be punished, subject to section 231 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68), with caning in addition to the punishment prescribed for that offence.

(1B) Where, by virtue of section 231 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap.68), the defendant referred to in subsection (1A) is not punishable with caning, he shall, in lieu of caning, be punished with a fine not exceeding $10,000.

(2) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under subsection (1) (e) and that offence is proved to have been committed with the authority, consent or connivance of any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

[35/84]

(2A) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Act for which a period of mandatory imprisonment or mandatory caning is prescribed, the body corporate shall, in lieu of imprisonment or caning, be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than $100,000 and not more than $200,000.

[41/95]

(3) Any person unlawfully entering or re-entering or attempting unlawfully to enter or re-enter Singapore or unlawfully remaining in Singapore shall, whether or not any proceedings are taken against him in respect of that offence, be liable to be removed from Singapore by order of the Controller.

(4) Where the master of any vessel is charged with an offence under this Act, the clearance of the vessel may be refused until the charge has been heard and the fine (if any) imposed has been paid.

(5) Where, in any proceedings under this Act or the regulations, it is proved that the defendant has failed to produce on demand by an immigration officer or a police officer —

(a) any valid permit, pass or certificate issued to him under this Act or the regulations;
(b) any other document accepted by the Controller as evidence that the defendant has entered or remained in Singapore lawfully; or

(c) any other evidence showing to the satisfaction of the Controller that the defendant is exempted from section 6 (1), it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that he has, as the case may be, entered or re-entered or remained in Singapore unlawfully.

(6) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) (c), it is proved that the defendant has conveyed any prohibited immigrant in any vehicle, vessel, aircraft or train, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that he is engaged in the business or trade of conveying to Singapore in or on that vehicle, vessel, aircraft or train that prohibited immigrant knowing him to be, or having reasonable grounds for believing him to be, a prohibited immigrant.

[60/73;
38/93]

(7) Where, in any proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) (d), it is proved that the defendant has given shelter to any person who has remained in Singapore unlawfully for a period exceeding 90 days after the expiration of any pass issued to him or who has entered Singapore in contravention of section 5 (1) or 6 (1), it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the defendant has harboured him knowing him to be a person who has acted in contravention of the provisions of this Act or the regulations.

[35/84]

(8) Where an immigration offender is found at any premises or place, other than premises used solely for residential purposes, the occupier of the premises or place shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have employed him knowing that he is an immigration offender.

[41/95]

(9) In any proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) (d) or (e), it shall not be a defence for the defendant to prove that the person harboured or employed by him was in possession of a pass or permit issued to the person under this Act or the regulations unless the defendant further proves that he had exercised due diligence to ascertain that the pass or permit was at the material time valid under this Act or the regulations.

[38/93]

(10) For the purposes of subsection (9) —

(a) a defendant who is charged with an offence under subsection (1)(d) shall not be deemed to have exercised due diligence unless the defendant —

(i) requires the person harboured by him to produce for his inspection the original copy of the pass or permit or, where the pass or permit is endorsed on the passport or travel document, that person's passport or other travel document;

(ii) checks the pass or permit to ascertain that the particulars on the passport of the person harboured by him materially correspond with the particulars set out in the pass or permit; and

(iii) where the name of the employer of the person harboured by him is specified in the pass or permit, checks with the employer to verify that the person is employed by the employer and that the particulars of that person correspond with the records of the employer;

(b) a defendant who is charged with an offence under subsection (1)(e) shall not be deemed to have exercised due diligence unless the defendant —

(i) requires the person employed by him to produce for his inspection the original copy of the pass or permit or, where the pass or permit is endorsed on the passport or travel document, that person's passport or other travel document;

(ii) checks the pass or permit to ascertain that the particulars on the passport of the person employed by him materially correspond with the particulars set out in the pass or permit; and

(iii) where the person employed by him is a holder of a visit pass, has reasonable grounds for believing that the person had, at the material time, in force a work permit issued under the Employment of Foreign Workers Act (Cap.91A) or had obtained the written consent of the Controller to work in Singapore.

(11) No person, being the owner, tenant or occupier of any premises or place referred to in subsection (8), shall knowingly permit or suffer such premises or place or any part thereof to be kept or used as a place or premises in which any person is employed in contravention of subsection (1) (e).

[6/89]

(12) Any person who contravenes subsection (11) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term of not less than 6 months and not more than 2 years and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $6,000.

[6/89]

(13) In this section and section 57A, "immigration offender" means a person who has acted in contravention of section 6 (1), 15 or 36 or the regulations.

[41/95]

Prohibition of immigration offender entering or remaining at work place

57A. —(1) No occupier of a work place who has control of access to the work place shall permit any immigration offender to enter or remain at the work place.

[41/95]

(2) Where an immigration offender is found at a work place, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that the occupier of the work place —

(a) had control of access to the work place;

(b) had permitted the immigration offender to enter or remain at the work place; and

(c) had knowledge that he is an immigration offender.

[41/95]

(3) The presumptions provided for in subsection (2) (b) and (c) shall not be rebutted unless the defendant proves that he had exercised due diligence to prevent the immigration offender from entering or remaining at the work place.

[41/95]

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), a defendant shall not be presumed to have exercised due diligence unless he had taken all reasonable measures to prevent any immigration offender from entering or remaining at the work place, including all the measures prescribed under subsection (5) in respect of the work place.

[41/95]

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, prescribe the measures that are required to be taken by the occupier of the work place.

[41/95]

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine of not less than $15,000 and not more than $30,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both for each immigration offender found at the work place and, in the case of a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine of not less than $30,000 and not more than $60,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both for each immigration offender found at the work place.

[41/95]

(7) In this section —

"construction works" has the same meaning as in the Construction and Industry Development Board Act (Cap. 51) and includes such other works or activities as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, specify to be construction works;

"occupier" , in relation to a work place, means the principal contractor who undertakes any construction works at the work place and includes such other person as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, specify to be the occupier of the work place;

"principal contractor" means a person who has entered into a contract with an owner, a developer or a lessee of a property or his agent for the purpose of carrying out any construction works on the property;

"work place" means any place or premises where any construction works are being carried out and includes —

(a) all the land within the vicinity of the work place which are owned by the person for whom the construction works are being carried out and to which the principal contractor has control of access;

(b) any canteen, sleeping quarters, office and other structures or buildings erected on the work place; and

(c) such other place or premises as the Minister may, by notification in the Gazette, specify to be a work place.

[41/95]

General penalty

58. Any person guilty of an offence under this Act for which no special penalty is provided shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $2,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to both.

Composition of offences

59. The Controller or any immigration officer authorised by name or by office in that behalf by the Minister by notification in the Gazette may compound such offence under this Act or the regulations as may be prescribed as being an offence which may be compounded by collecting from the person reasonably suspected of having committed the offence a sum of money not exceeding $500.

[13/77;
35/84]

Jurisdiction of Courts

60. —(1) All offences under this Act or the regulations shall be cognizable by a District Court or a Magistrate's Court.

(2) Any District Court or Magistrate's Court may, notwithstanding anything in the Criminal Procedure Code (Cap. 68), impose the full punishment prescribed for any offence except that a Magistrate's Court shall not impose a sentence of imprisonment for a term exceeding 12 months.

Disposal of fees, fines and forfeitures

61. All fees levied, all fines imposed and recovered, all moneys forfeited and all costs and charges recovered under this Act shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Saving

62. —(1) Any person in Singapore whose presence is unlawful under the provisions of any previous written law for the time being in force in Singapore or any regulations or orders made thereunder shall be deemed to be unlawfully in Singapore for the purposes of this Act.
